General Post Office,
Hongkong, 12th April, 1870.

LETTERS, &c., ADDRESSED "LONDON"
ONLY.

Many persons are in the habit of addressing Letters, &c., for well-known Firms and Individuals to "London," which practice has not infrequently occasioned delay in such Letters, &c. reaching their rightful owners. In cases, however, where the Firm or Individual to whom the Letter, &c., is addressed is most essential, to ensure its correct prompt delivery, that the streets in which reside, and the number of the house, at which it is delivered, should be stated.

F. W. MITCHELL
Postmaster

General Post Office,
Hongkong, 31st January, 1870.

It is hereby notified for general information that the order of His Excellency Sir RICHARD B. MACDONALD, for the system of registration has been, from this date, extended to letters and other descriptions of correspondence transmitted by the Post, in the Mail both the British Contract Packets and Private Ships, between this Office and Agency thereof in China and Japan, viz.:—
ton, Swatow, Amoy, Poowoon, Ningpo, Shanghai, Nagasaki, Hiogo, and Yokohama, and between any two of these Agencies.

The fee for registration is 8 cents each letter.
